POSTER PRESENTATION GUIDELINES

A poster should be able to stand-alone. Judges should be able to determine the purpose, data and significance of a project simply by looking at and reading the poster.

A clear title with the author's name, affiliation, is desirable, as well as an abstract in large bulletin type. Charts, drawings, and illustrations might be similar to those one would use for journal articles, or in making slides; however, they should be readable from a distance of several feet. It is best to keep illustrative material simple.

Make the display as self-explanatory as possible.

- Draw a plan keeping the size and number of illustrations in mind
- Place the information sequentially beginning with the main idea or problem, method used, result etc.
- Keep illustrations simple, using charts, graphs, drawings and pictures to create interest and visually explain a point.
- Use large print for narrative material; letters should be a minimum of 24 points.
- We suggest 7.5cm high letters for the title.

A note about commercialism: SPE has a stated policy against the use of language that is commercial in tone in the posters and this should be avoided

The dimension of the poster should be 95cm (L) x 150cm (H).

NOTE: Please ensure your poster is of lightweight construction in order for the Velcro to hold it up.
